*Today is a Cohort B Red Day: You will have Homeroom, period 1-3.

The results of the Spring Betty Field Writing contest are in! Last Spring, students from all over the Pike's Peak area entered a writing contest sponsored by the Pikes Peak Library District. I am happy to announce the winners from LPMS. They were 7th graders when they submitted entries; they are 8th graders today.

In third place, with his entry "The Case of the Cullinan Diamond", congratulations go to Daniel Bloomfield. In second place, with her entry "The Dissociative Killer" let's congratulate Rainya Seybert. And taking first place, with his entry "Scooter", let's give a round of applause to Jace Baeman.

Students, the PPLD should have contacted you about your prizes. If they have not, please contact Mrs. Barnard.

Long live 7 Blue (I will be shouting this in the hallways)

*Intramural Volleyball will begin Monday, September 14th. This is for 7th and 8th grade. Pick up registration information from the front office during your lunch period today.

*Today's quote is:

The most wasted of all days is one without laughter. E.E. Cummings

TEACHERS DON'T FORGET TO GET YOUR LUNCH COUNT OF THE STUDENTS WHO WILL BE PURCHASING LUNCH.

Have a great day everyone!
