Parent/Guardians of sophomore students,

The Class of 2022 graduation requirements contains a Personal Financial Literacy component. Students may meet this requirement and earn .5 credit by taking the semester long Personal Finance class during the junior year here at Palmer Ridge High School. Students may also complete 9 online modules through the EVERFI financial literacy program to acquire this graduation competency. Students received information earlier this semester about how to access these modules during Study Hall / Free Range Bears. The EVERFI program is web-based and may be accessed during Study Hall or from home. Computer access in Study Hall is limited. Completion deadline for this program is Friday, January 31st.

The EVERFI modules contain the following units:

- Savings
- Banking
- Payment Types, Interest Rates, and Credit Cards
- Credit Scores
- Financing Higher Education
- Renting vs. Owning
- Taxes and Insurance
- Consumer Fraud
- Investing

For more information please visit the EVERFI website and/ or have your student see Ms. Lopez in classroom A2120 for further login information.

A complete list of the graduation requirements can be found in the Student Handbook.

Thank you for your support!
