

Research interest rates for a savings account, checking account, certificate of deposit, or money market account. Find the best interest rate you can for an account you can use to begin saving. Find and record the following information about the account.

Banking Institution: _____

Type of Account: _____

Interest Rate: _____

Compounding Periods per Year: _____

Future Value Equation for this Investment: _____

Minimum starting balance: _____

Attach a print out of the pages containing the above information, with the information highlighted.